

Rachel Murdoch

Project Facilitator

T: 402.427.4395

rachel@snowconsultingservices.com

EDUCATION

M.A. Organizational Leadership
Azusa Pacific University; Azusa, CA

B.A. Media Communication/Writing
Bethel University; St. Paul, MN

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Professional Coach;
Wainwright Global Institute of Professional Coaching

LEADERSHIP ROLES

Manager, Dean of Students Office
University of Alaska

Director, Residence Life
Biola University

Assistant Director, Residence Life
Biola University

PROFESSIONAL COMMITMENT

Ms. Murdoch is a Project Facilitator for Snow Consulting Services and has extensive experience working in the co-curricular and student development side of higher education with a heavy emphasis on programming and compliance. Her experience has been in both the private and public university settings. Ms. Murdoch is known for her ability to establish professional and caring relationships with her colleagues and clients while coaching and inspiring them to take the action steps necessary to reach their ultimate goals. Ms. Murdoch was recognized for her outstanding teaching and mentoring while serving as the Director of Residence Life at Biola University.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

University of Alaska - Anchorage, AK

- Drafted communications on behalf of senior executive student affairs officials.*
- Managed online student conduct database containing over 15,000 records.*
- Served on the Student Code of Conduct Revisions Committee.*

Biola University - La Mirada, CA

- Developed and implemented campus-wide program planning standards, evaluations and assessments.*
- Increased student learning through course correction strategies.*
- Created training manuals and corresponding materials.*

Bethel University - St. Paul, MN

- Facilitated leadership development training.*
- Collaborated with area institutions. *

* Projects completed under previous employment.